- 2 hours, 30 minutes

You have probably stopped while walking through the Belgrade center, looked around, and inhaled the scent of old times, architecture, and history.

Perfectly discover the secrets of Belgrade by exploring the undergrounds of Belgrade. The underground of Belgrade contains a large number of localities such are: Caves, Underground Passages, Dungeons, Bunkers, and many other buildings which were build and destroyed by people that lived in Belgrade. Knez Mihailova street, Kalemegdan park, Kosancicev venac, Karadjordjeva street are some of the most important historical landmarks which will be visited. Did you know that those landmarks, under modern Belgrade streets, hide many historically significant secrets and stories that were buried for centuries?

The Belgrade Underground tour is the best and most interesting way to discover its secrets and centuries-old stories. For Belgrade, it can be said that it is one of the most unusual and the oldest settlements in Europe.

What is hidden under Belgrade?

With its turbulent history, Belgrade offers to its visitors much more than its most famous buildings, promenades, delicious food, and good fun. Walking through Belgrade main street we will get to Kalemegdan park, its most significant landmark, that will not leave you indifferent. The main focus will be on underground sights which secretly contribute to the Belgrade identity, while very little is known about them in public

The adventure will start at Roman well (Rimski bunar), then through narrow corridors, we will enter into a military bunker from the time of the Cominform where numerous political games and secrets will be revealed. We continue our walk to a large gunpowder warehouse (famous Barutana) where the famous Lapidarium is today. There you will see a unique archaeological collection with sarcophagi, tombstones, and altars from the territory of Belgrade, and the whole of Serbia.

Following the old customs, cultural monuments, we will listen to legends about various human fates that have made Belgrade as we know it today. Following our customs, the ideal way to end the tour is to visit the wine cellar, where you can feel the bohemian atmosphere and completes your experience with a glass of wine.

A visit to all these localities depicts the unusual history of Belgrade, which stimulated the curiosity of people interested in history and culture for centuries.
